FAQ's

St Ives Chamber of Trade & Commerce is here to provide a voice for the local business community.

Our aim is to promote, represent and inform our members. We listen, raise concerns, encourage business and offer support and guidance—all with the aim of developing a vibrant and sustainable business community in the St Ives and Carbis Bay areas.

Aims and Objectives

- Promotion and protection of the business community.
- Collection, discussion and distribution of information affecting business interests of members.
- Co-operation with other groups and associations who have similar objectives.
- Promotion of charitable and social functions.

Do I have to attend lots of meetings?

No. Each year we hold an AGM and at least two open meetings for members and non-members. You are welcome to come along, but are not obliged to. We also hold 8-10 committee meetings per year which are attended by the main committee, members representatives and members on request.

How do I get more involved?

If you would like to get more involved with Chamber and/or its activities we would love to hear from you. Please email us.

If my business has an issue that it would like to raise, how do I do it?

If you have a business concern or question and you would like to raise it with the Chamber then as a member you can do it either at one of the open meetings or by emailing us.

How is the Chamber structured?

The Chamber has an elected main committee consisting of a Chairperson, Vice-chair, Secretary, Treasurer and Town Council Representative and a group of Member Representatives. All volunteer their own time.

Where does my membership subscription go?

Solely towards funding the activities of the Chamber and supporting local initiatives.

Is my business too small to join?

No. Members range from the sole traders to large organisations. We actively welcome businesses of any size to join the St Ives Chamber.
